NARRATIVE:

Benjamin Pairfax is a sex offender with an extensive adult criminal history that began at the age of 24. His convictions include annoying and molesting children, failing to register as a sex offender, burglary, multiple drug convictions, multiple theft convictions, transporting and selling controlled substances, parole violations and failing to report. He has served multiple state prison terms the longest a 6 year term for transporting and selling controlled substances. Pairfax was released from state prison to the supervision of the Los Angeles County Probation Department on December 14, 2011. Under the Governor's Public Safety Realignment Act of 2011, better known as Assembly Bill 109 (AB 109) the responsibility of lower-level offenders was shifted from the State to Los Angeles County. He subsequently failed to report to his probation officer and an arrest warrant was issued in July 2014 after he absconded from post release community supervision (PRCS). Pairfax qualified to be released to the supervision of probation, under AB 109, because his current commitment offense for transporting and selling controlled substances is defined as non-serious and non-violent under the California penal code. His criminal history, sex offender status and current failure to comply with the terms of release make him a most wanted. If you know his whereabouts please contact...
